WICHITA, KAN. — The owner of Derby Antiques and More, LLC, reimbursed her former clients more than $13,000 on Monday as part of plea negotiations with prosecutors.

Sandra Ostrander pleaded guilty to three counts of theft in return for a recommendation that she be placed on probation and allowed to reside in Georgia according to documents filed in District Court. Ostrander also was ordered not to own or operate any businesses in the state of Kansas during her probation.

As a result of plea negotiations with the District Attorney's Office, Ostrander deposited $13,173.55 with the Clerk of the District Court to be distributed to 38 victims in the case. Ostrander ran a store where she sold items on consignment. She was accused of taking money from sales of those items without forwarding the appropriate payments to the people who provided the items for sale.
