WICHITA, KAN. – The District Attorney’s Office has obtained $17,000 in restitution for the victims of a local contractor.

In four incidents dating to last July, Michael Wall of Haysville received down payments from homeowners who wanted either a new deck or a deck addition. The work was never completed, and the down payments were never returned to the homeowners.

Wall, 30, was arrested in west Wichita in November and charged with three felony counts of theft. In exchange for amending the charges to misdemeanor thefts, Wall paid the $17,000 at the time he entered the plea. Wall was granted probation.

The case was investigated by the Wichita Police Department, Sedgwick County Sheriff Office and the Investigations Division of the District Attorney’s Office.
