WICHITA, KAN. - A used car dealership, its owner, and a salesperson have entered into a consent judgment with the Office of the District Attorney. The dealership and personnel were investigated after receiving a consumer complaint. After its investigation the District Attorney alleged that the salesperson was not licensed and a vehicle had been sold with an undisclosed safety recall.

The agreement between the District Attorney and Odis Roberson, Jason Rivas, and O.R. Auto Sales at 1520 E. Douglas called for the defendants to pay $10,000, address safety recalls, and maintain appropriate licensure among other directives. The defendants compensated another consumer to his satisfaction prior to the consent judgment being entered.

The District Attorney reminds residents that safety recalls affect millions of cars and residents and should inquire before buying a vehicle if the vehicle is subject to a recall. Residents can check their cars, trucks, and motor cycles for recalls at <https://www.safercar.gov/vin>. Recalls are free and repairs are covered by the manufacturer. Dealerships and salespersons should be licensed with the Kansas Department of Revenue.

The consent judgment was filed July 23, 2019 and signed by Judge Deborah Hernandez Mitchell. The case was investigated by Investigator Dwight Wilkes of the District Attorney's Office.
