- During the month of December, Sedgwick County Developmental Disability Organization (SCDDO) Quality Assurance Staff completed 9 day and 16 residential program visits.
- At the December Affiliate Directors Meeting Dee Nighswonger, SCDDO Director, provided an overview of the new registered apprenticeship program for Direct Support Professionals (DSP). InterHab is developing this program through a grant. A total of 20 new DSP registered apprenticeship programs with a minimum of 107 new apprentices will be funded through this grant over four years. The program is statewide and provides an opportunity for Sedgwick County affiliates to participate.
- The SCDDO continued its strategic planning efforts in a department-wide meeting on December 16th. Wichita State University's Community Engagement Institute (CEI) facilitated the process which included a review of the results of a stakeholder survey. The focus of the strategic plan is specific to SCDDO as a department and the statutory, regulatory, contractual and policy requirements of a CDDO. Additionally, one strategic focus area will be to Enhance SCDDO Staff Support & Department Culture. Other emerging priorities are communication, training/education and improvement of processes.
- SCDDO Director and Service Access Manager participated in the NADD Annual Conference. The conference was virtual again this year. Highlights included sessions on "Lessons from the Global Pandemic-An International Study," "Promising Trends in Trauma Treatment for People Who are Dually Diagnosed" and numerous other valuable workshops.
- During the InterHab Association meeting it was announced that SCDDO Director, Dee Nighswonger, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors. Dee's term will begin 1/1/22 and is a three year term.
