For Immediate Release, March 1, 2023

WICHITA, KAN. – A man was sentenced to prison after he barricaded himself in an east Wichita house and threatened police who tried to get him out. District Judge Sean Hatfield sentenced Micah Fleming, 32 of Wichita, to 46 months in prison and 24 months of post release after he pled guilty on November 28th of last year to aggravated domestic battery and two counts of aggravated assault of a law enforcement officer.

On September 22nd of 2020, Fleming physically abused his girlfriend at his home in south Wichita. When the woman was taken to a Wichita hospital for treatment, police began looking for Fleming. They found him on November 14th of 2020 at a home on E. Funston in Wichita. Fleming barricading himself in the basement and threw items at the officers, including a chisel which missed an officer and stuck in the wall. At one point, Fleming pointed what looked to be a rifle at the officers.

The officers retreated and the SWAT team was called. After several hours, with the help of the canine unit, Fleming was arrested. The gun held by Fleming was an airsoft rifle.

During sentencing this morning, Judge Hatfield also ordered Fleming to pay $2,160 to the Kansas Crime Victims Compensation Board.
