- During the month of February, Sedgwick County Developmental Disability Organization (SCDDO) Quality Assurance Staff completed 5 day and 9 residential program visits.
- The NADD evidence-based training, “Mental Health Approaches to Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities,” was reconfigured into a webinar format. During February, a total of 146 USD 259 social workers completed the NADD training via lunch and learn webinars, increasing the number of professionals in our community with this training to over 400.
- Leah Gagne, a lawyer specializing in guardianships, was appointed to the Intellectual/Developmental Disability Advisory Board in February by Commissioner Lacey Cruse.
- SCDDO Director, Dee Nighswonger, was appointed to the Wichita - Sedgwick County Access Advisory Board and attended her first meeting in February.
- SCDDO continues to emphasize on peer support and mutual help as part of our trauma-informed systems of care. In February the first round of peer coaching for affiliate directors wrapped up. A total of five affiliates participated in the six month long process.
- One new affiliate was added to the SCDDO provider network in February. Winning Out Loud will provide a day support program in Northeast Wichita. The agency is currently in the process of contracting with the Managed Care Companies but is accepting referrals for private pay and state aid funding.
