- During the month of July, Sedgwick County Developmental Disability Organization (SCDDO) Quality Assurance Staff completed 10 day and 15 residential program visits.
- Jeannette Livingston, Deputy SCDDO Director, attended the 16th annual Project SEARCH conference in Milwaukee. The conference is designed to share best practices and promote continuous improvement of Project SEARCH programs. It was the largest Project SEARCH conference to date with over 850 attendees. Participants came from all over the United States and several countries including Iceland and the UK. Project SEARCH teachers for the programs with Goodwill, Derby and Wichita – Via Christi attended.
- Supported decision-making as an alternative to guardianship was the focus of the July meeting of the Sedgwick County Developmental Disability Community Council. Tami Allen with Families Together and Evan Dean with the University of Kansas Center on Developmental Disabilities shared information on how shared decision-making works and shared resources from Charting the LifeCourse.
- SCDDO Operations successfully filled the new Operations Specialist position. The position will provide the fiscal and clerical support required to ensure SCDDO program outcomes. Responsibilities include data collection and ensuring state reporting is in compliance with state contract and local policies, as well as general ancillary duties.
