The Sedgwick County Arena will make a large and long-term impact on downtown Wichita. Sedgwick County and the City of Wichita are working together to create a neighborhood that will make downtown a vibrant community and destination point for years to come, in an atmosphere that provides for future economic development and enhances quality of life in an exciting center city. This area would include:

- Sedgwick County Arena
- Old Town entertainment district
- WaterWalk
- Proposed Art District
- Proposed Century II expansion
- Eaton Place block
- Transit Center

Community Input Process

To provide an opportunity to share information about the Sedgwick County Arena project and to seek ideas and input on the Arena Neighborhood Redevelopment Plan through a series of meetings:

- 1st Meeting: April 12 — Introduce planning process & timeline
- 2nd Meeting: July — Define site selection criteria
- 3rd Meeting: December — Site selection open house
- 4th Meeting: January '06 — Final site information meeting and next steps
