FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEDGWICK COUNTY TO HOST PLANNING SUMMIT

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Sedgwick County will host the Inter-Municipal Planning Summit on Saturday, November 8 at the Wichita State University Hughes Metroplex, 5015 E. 29th St. N., 9:00 a.m. Sedgwick County Commissioners will attend.

The Planning Summit is being held in order to bring representatives from each of the cities in Sedgwick County together to discuss future growth and solutions that will help benefit each community.

"We are excited about the opportunity to bring representatives together from each community in Sedgwick County," said Sedgwick County Commission Chairman Tim Norton. "Our goal is to identify areas of concern and look at various ideas on handling future growth. Sedgwick County is a wonderful place to live. We want to be sure that every community has an equal opportunity for growth in the future."
