FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sedgwick County Can Vote in Advance

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Whether you are back to school shopping or on vacation, do not let other activities keep you from voting in the August 3, Primary election.

Any registered voter in Sedgwick County is eligible to vote in advance of all elections. Advance voting applications are available now through July 28 at the Sedgwick County Election Office. Applications are also located online: www.sedgwickcounty.org, or at QuikTrips in Sedgwick County. Voting at the Historic Courthouse, 510 N. Main, begins July 21 and ends at 12 noon, August 2.

“I’m glad we have options for citizens to encourage them to participate in the voting process,” said Sedgwick County Commission Chairman Tom Winters. “Voting is the best way to make your opinion count.”
