FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEDGWICK COUNTY TO HOLD GROUND BREAKING ON PUBLIC SAFETY CENTER

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) –Sedgwick County will hold a ground breaking for the new Public Safety Center on Thursday, August 18, at 714 N. Main, 1:30 p.m. A reception will follow in the Human Services Conference Room, 635 N. Main.

The Sedgwick County Public Safety Center will house Sedgwick County’s Emergency Communications and Emergency Management Departments.

“We are very excited for construction to begin on this new center,” said Sedgwick County Commissioner Chairman Dave Unruh. “The Public Safety Center will be an asset for all Sedgwick County citizens.”
