FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Come Have an Eggs-traordinary Time at Easter Eggstravaganza

Hop on over to the Sedgwick County Zoo for Easter Eggstravaganza on Saturday, April 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Children of all ages are invited to come out for an egg-cellent time at this special event.

During Easter Eggstravaganza, kids will be able to see the chimpanzees, gorillas, orangutans, and elephants receive Easter treats. And, don't forget the annual sheep shearing demonstration!

Easter wouldn't be the same without candy and prizes. So, be sure to bring your Easter basket to gather up goodies from candy stations throughout the Zoo. Kids can also enjoy lots of egg-citing Easter activities like bunny bowling, Easter crafts and the Great Egg Search.

Other activities will include: making a free child identification kit, brought to you by Farmers Insurance agents Jeff Baldwin and Dean Ladd; The Sedgwick County Health Department will be on hand to help children and their parents think about being prepared for public health challenges, including natural disasters or a pandemic flu, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Stop by the Zoo Pavilion to pick up information on wellness, cough etiquette, and social distancing. Also, receive a free hand sanitizer and a document protector, get your blood pressure checked and register to win a Ready Tube Preparedness Kit.

Regular Zoo admission applies. Members get in free with their membership card and a photo ID. Easter Eggstravaganza is sponsored by BOB FM and The Kansas CW.
