FIRST HALF TAX BILLINGS

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – During the next week, Ron Estes, the Sedgwick County Treasurer, will mail more than 254,000 2008 tax billings to the citizens of Sedgwick County. Citizens may begin receiving mailings on November 12, 2008. Real, personal, utility, and special assessments totaling $553,764,197.76 were billed for the various taxing authorities, including schools, cities, townships, and county.

The payment deadline for the first half is December 20, 2008. Taxes may be paid online by visiting the Sedgwick County Treasurer's Web site at www.sedgwickcounty.org/treasurer. Select the "tax payment system" option and use a MasterCard, VISA, or Discover card to pay your taxes.

The tax deadline for second-half taxes is May 10, 2009.

The Treasurer also offers the "WebReminder" available on the Web site listed above. Through a simple sign using an e-mail address, the Treasurer's Office will send e-mail reminders of real estate and personal property tax due dates on December 1 and April 19.

Assistance for taxpayers eligible for the homestead property tax refund is available by calling the Sedgwick County Clerk at 660-9222.
