(Sedgwick County, Kan.) - Nineteen employees from Starkey Inc., which serves more than 400 individuals with developmental disabilities, have been taking Sedgwick County Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) classes this month to be better prepared in the event their facility is affected by a disaster.

CERT classes train participants in disaster preparedness, fire safety and suppression, medical triage and treatment, search and rescue, disaster psychology, and terrorism. The employees will finish the class on June 25 with a preparedness exercise that will start at approximately 2:30 p.m. at 1939 E. Diedrich in Haysville.
