FIRE DISTRICT ARSON INVESTIGATION

(Sedgwick County, Kan.) – Investigators from the Sedgwick County Fire District #1 and the Haysville Police Department have determined a fire that occurred at 238 Marlen Court at 3 a.m., August 3, 2009 in Haysville was likely started intentionally.

The fire caused extensive damage to the home; however, no one was injured.

A reward of up to $5,000 is being offered for information aiding in determining who is responsible for starting this fire. The reward is being offered by the Kansas Committee on Arson Prevention.

If you have information that may be of assistance please contact the Sedgwick County Fire District at 660-3473 or the Kansas Arson Hotline: 1-800-KS-CRIME. Callers are not required to identify themselves.
