FIRE PREVENTION WINNERS

(Sedgwick County, Kan.) – Winners have been announced in the Sedgwick County Fire Department's Eighth Annual Roody Doo contest for Fire Prevention Week, which was October 4 - 10, 2009. Roody Doo is the department's Dalmatian mascot for fire prevention activities.

Students were judged on completion of puzzle worksheets. Each won a plaque and a $40 gift card to All Star Adventures or Build-A-Bear Workshop. The winners are:

Hannah Dort	fourth grader	Sunrise Christian Academy
Ryan Robinson	fourth grader	Oatville Elementary
Anna Bliss-Asplund	third grader	St. Peter Catholic School
Nick Abbondanza	third grader	Ruth Clark Elementary
Rob Winter	fourth grader	Andale Elementary
Autumn Brummer	third grader	St. Marks Charter School

Teachers who incorporated the worksheets into homework assignments were rewarded by having their names placed in a drawing for a $40 gift certificate to Granite City Food and Brewery and were given a plaque. The winners are:

Leah Dreiling - third grade teacher at Amelia Earhart Elementary in Goddard
Marcia Mueller - third grade teacher at Bentley Primary School
