Wichita, Kansas – A man has been sentenced to prison for attempting to rob a woman and robbing a second woman in store parking lots in west Wichita last summer. Jose Olguin, 20 of Wichita, was sentenced to 55 months in prison this afternoon by District Court Judge David Dahl. Olguin pled guilty to aggravated robbery and attempted aggravated robbery on November 17th of last year.

June 20, Olguin accosted a woman in the parking lot of the Wal Mart at 21st and Maize Road and demanded her purse. When the woman saw a gun in Olguin's waistband she ran screaming into the store.

A few minutes later, Olguin pointed the gun at a woman in the parking lot of the Dillon's across the street and took her purse.

Two days later after a tip from the public, Olguin was arrested in the bedroom of an apartment in west Wichita.

Judge Dahl also ordered Olguin to pay $2,000 in restitution for therapy for one of the crime victims.
