Wichita, Kansas - A woman with a history of shoplifting was sentenced in Sedgwick County District Court to 45 months in prison for four cases of felony theft.

Jacqueline Coleman, 51 of Wichita, was convicted of a total of five counts of felony theft for crimes committed between 2012 and 2015. The businesses where Coleman stole items included Kohl's, Gordman's, K-Mart and Dillons.

On Wednesday Coleman's attorney asked Judge Joe Kisner for one last chance on probation on her most recent case. Judge Kisner declined to give Coleman probation, noting that she was on probation in three cases when she committed the most recent offense, stealing clothing from Kohl's Department Store on Rock Road April 25 of this year.
