WICHITA, KAN. – Three former law enforcement officers will be closely monitored for their level of intoxication during the annual “New Years Eve Don’t Drink and Drive Show” Wednesday, December 31st.

The program originates from The Live at 215 Performance Theatre at 215 N. St. Francis in Wichita.

The radio participants are Don Hall’s morning show on KEYN-FM 103.7 from 6 to 9am and Hank the Mechanic’s show on T-95 from noon to 2pm.

Retired law enforcement officers from the Sedgwick County Sheriff’s Department and the Wichita Police Department will be taken through the field sobriety tests that are administered when a vehicle is stopped and the driver is suspected of being under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Along with current and retired officers, other participants in the program are Aaron Breitenbach, the Chief Attorney in the Traffic Division of the District Attorney’s Office, Nick Finecy from Lifesaver Interlock of Kansas and the organizer of the program, Danny Saville Attorney At Law, former DUI prosecutor and current defense attorney.
