WICHITA, KAN. – A man who attacked his girlfriend, while on parole for a similar crime, has been sentenced in Sedgwick County District Court. Last Friday, Judge Christopher Magana sentenced Cletis O’Quinn, 54 of Wichita, to 620 months in prison. On March 27, 2017 a jury found O’Quinn guilty of aggravated kidnapping, aggravated sexual battery and aggravated battery. The attack included O’Quinn choking the woman until she was unconscious two separate times.

At the time O’Quinn committed the crimes in 2015, he was on parole for a 1989 case where he was convicted of the same crimes. The victim in 1989 was a young girl working in a Wichita convenience store.
