WICHITA, KAN. – A man was sentenced for sexually assaulting teenage boys. Frank Carbis III, 29 of Wichita, was sentenced to 122 months in prison after being convicted of four counts of criminal sodomy, two counts of sexual exploitation of a child and two counts of indecent solicitation of a child. Under Kansas sentencing guidelines, the penalty is the maximum Carbis could receive. The crimes occurred in Wichita in late August of 2016 and involved two boys, 14 and 15 years old.

Thursday morning District Judge Seth Rundle also sentenced Carbis to lifetime post release after prison and ordered that he register as a sex offender for the remainder of his life.
