Questions and Answers

Angela Caudillo: What is the cost to house those inmates and where does that funding come from?

Sandy Anguelov: Unfortunately, that is a question I would have to defer to the Sheriff's Office.

BOARD OF BIDS AND CONTRACTS FEBRUARY 28, 2019

Richard Powell: I can respond to that. Depending upon the availability of local housing at the Jail Annex at Harry and McLean, there would not be any substantial additional cost if there is bed space. Currently, that building is pretty much full though. I think we have 172 out of 180 beds filled. This would tell us that we would send inmates out of county to other Sheriff Offices in the immediate surrounding area. The current contract rate is $35.00 per day per inmate. Plus the associated transportation costs and windshield time with the Deputies that are involved in that transportation process. We do have budget allocated for out-of-county inmate housing.

Russell Leeds: What precipitated this maintenance or this flooring upgrade change in the jail?

Sandy Anguelov: Actually its not for maintenance. The jail is having some issues with people pulling up the tile and making them into weapons. That's the reason we've decided to go with concrete.

Russell Leeds: So it poses a safety risk to both inmates and jail employees. The removal is necessary and important for safety within the facility.

Sandy Anguelov: That is correct.

Richard Powell: After time has moved on over several decades, the vinyl tile squares or laminate flooring has become brittle or hard. Over a period of time it just simply works loose and open edges can be peeled back. Any of you that have ever seen floor tile, you know how brittle it can become. Potentially it can become a weapon of sorts that can be used inside the facility. For the safety and security of the organization and everybody who's inside regardless where they are is a concern of ours.

Russell Leeds: For the record, I note that in addition to being the low bid, Great American Hardwood Flooring also indicated they have the lowest projected completion time frame.

Sandy Anguelov: Correct.

Russell Leeds: Right at 364 days for final completion where the others are a little bit significantly higher than that.

Richard Powell: I have a question for Counsel. Obviously I am affiliated with the Sheriff's Office, would it be appropriate for me to cast a vote or should I abstain?

Mike Fessinger: You may abstain if you wish. I don't see any way that you would be directly benefited by this purchase. So I don't think you have to but you can always abstain if you want to. May I ask just a quick question? Did the bid paperwork contain liquidated damages in the event that they go long and cause inmates to be housed longer elsewhere?

Kristen McGovern: There are liquidated damages in the bid document.
