

Randall Hubert is a Chief Attorney who manages daily docket assignments for 26 trial attorneys in 28 divisions of District Court and the extraditions and detainer related matters.

Mr. Hubert completed his undergraduate degree from Kansas State University and his Juris Doctor degree from Kansas University School of Law. Randall began his career in the District Attorney's Office in 1986, and handles extradition and detainer related matters and is the main charging attorney for arson cases. Mr. Hubert is a member of the National District Attorney's Association (NDAA), the Kansas County and District Attorney's Association (KCDAA) and the American and Wichita Bar Associations. He has previously served as the Chairman of the Wichita Bar Association Criminal Practice Committee and is currently a member on the Jail Subcommittee. He previously served on the Kansas Committee on Arson Prevention.