

District Attorney Marc Bennett
18th Judicial District of Kansas

www.sedgwickcounty.org/da <https://www.facebook.com/SedgwickCountyDistrictAttorney>

For Immediate Release, March 19, 2020

WICHITA, KAN. – A Wichita man has been sentenced for the sexual assault and beatings of several children. Eric McFadden, 38 of Wichita, was sentenced Wednesday by District Judge Eric Williams to three consecutive life sentences plus 86 months.

In April of 2018, a 13 year old boy walked to the Patrol North Substation to report his mother's boyfriend was abusing his siblings. The boy was the oldest of nine children who were taken into protective custody. Police later discovered McFadden sexually abused two of the young girls in the family and beat them all with belts and extension cords if they took his snacks or "acted up."

In February, a jury found McFadden guilty of two counts of aggravated indecent liberties with a child, one count of rape, and five counts of abuse of a child.

The earliest McFadden would be eligible for parole is after he's served 82 years in prison.

District Attorney Marc Bennett
18th Judicial District of Kansas

CONTACT: DAN DILLON, MEDIA COORDINATOR 316-660-3707

Dan.Dillon@SEDGWICK.GOV