WICHITA, KAN. – A man was sentenced after attacking his girlfriend in Wichita. Judge Bruce Brown sentenced Anthony Peete, 39 of Wichita, to 150 months in prison. On June 14, a week before his trial was to start, Peete pled guilty to attempted second degree murder, aggravated battery, and aggravated intimidation of a witness or victim.

On February 6, 2020, Peete was alleged to have choked his girlfriend in the bathroom of their home in the 1400 block of N. Hillside. Peete wrapped a plastic trash bag around the woman's head. She passed out from lack of oxygen and struck her head on the bathtub. When the 22 year old woman regained consciousness, Peete again tried to use the bag to suffocate the woman. The woman was able to keep her fingers between the bag and her throat and talk Peete out of the attack. The victim was later admitted to a hospital with a dissected carotid artery.
