Comment:

I own property in far Western Sedgwick county that is used exclusively for shooting. I am a federally licensed arms dealer. My question or comment is this, if a homeowner is next to the shooting range and the only problem they have is the noise what is to keep them from taking their own gun putting two bullet holes in their garage and then calling the sheriff and claiming it was somebody else that was shooting. Just to discourage them from shooting there in the future. How does the county intend to prove where the bullets came from? It would be so easy for any homeowner to claim that the bullets came from the shooting range area when in fact they did it themselves again just to get rid of the noise.
