WICHITA, KAN. – A man has been sentenced after sexually assaulting three women in one day during the summer of 2021. District Judge Faith Maughan sentenced Andrew Jones, 28 of Wichita, to 95 months in prison.

On July 1st, 2021, Jones grabbed two women inside Towne East Square shopping mall in east Wichita. After the assaults at Towne East, a third woman was removing groceries from her car on E. Morris Street when a man grabbed her in a sexual manner. The woman yelled for her husband who chased the man before he stopped and pointed a knife at the husband.

That same day, an officer spotted a man wearing a gray hoodie and shorts who matched the description of the suspect in the sexual assaults. The officer chased the man over a mile before he entered a house in the 8000 block of E. Gilbert. When the suspect threatened to shoot the officer, he backed off. Other officers later entered the home and arrested Jones.

On March 9th, Jones pled no contest to attempted rape, two counts of aggravated sexual battery, and criminal threat.

Along with the prison sentence, Judge Maughan Wednesday ordered Jones to serve lifetime post release and registration.

Lifetime post release requires the Department of Corrections to watch him the rest of his life. Jones is subject to conditions on the release. If he violates those conditions, he could be sent back to prison.
