WICHITA, KAN. – A man was sentenced following the drug death of his infant son. District Judge Jeffrey Goering sentenced Calvin Vick, 26 of Wichita, to 219 months in prison.

Vick's 22-month-old son Israel Luna-Vick was taken to a Wichita hospital on June 22nd, 2022 after he was found unresponsive on the floor of Vick's apartment in the 8400 block of east Harry in Wichita. Hospital medical staff attempted life-saving measures including administering NARCAN in case of drug overdose. The little boy died within an hour of arriving at the hospital.

Wichita Police searched the Vick apartment and found four tablets in the carpet and underneath the child's sleeping area. Testing at the Sedgwick County Regional Forensic Science Center showed the pills contained Fentanyl.

An autopsy at the Forensic Science Center showed the child died after ingesting methamphetamine and Fentanyl.

On December 7th, Vick pled guilty to distribution of a controlled substance causing great bodily harm or death (K.S.A. 21-5430(b)), aggravated endangering a child, and distribution of a controlled substance.
