- ii. Brian Powers: How does the stair step configuration provide access throughout the theater?
 - iii. Luke Scott: It does not provide access to the front of the theater. What it does is fix the steep slope between the front and back. There is no way to get a path to the front for wheel chair accessibility.

 - v. Luke Scott: Can you point us to the section of the ADA manual where this requirement is found?

 - vii. Luke Scott: That has not yet been decided, but leaning towards folding chairs.
 - viii. There is no accessible seating in the balcony, no space to add an elevator.

 - iii. Kyelene Flaming: July is also Disability Pride month.
 - e. Chair nominations
 - i. Lisa Vayda declined the nomination made in May.
