

Kansas Crime Victim Bill of Rights

(K.S.A. 74-7333)

1. Victims should be treated with courtesy, compassion and with respect for their dignity and privacy and should suffer the minimum of necessary inconvenience from their involvement with the criminal justice system.
2. Victims should receive, through formal and informal procedures, prompt and fair redress for the harm which they suffered.
3. Information regarding the availability of criminal restitution, recovery of damages in a civil cause of action, the crime victim's compensation fund and other remedies and the mechanisms to obtain such remedies should be made available to victims.
4. Information should be made available to victims about their participation in criminal proceedings and the scheduling, progress and ultimate disposition of proceedings.
5. The views and concerns of victims should be ascertained and the appropriate assistance provided throughout the criminal process.
6. When the personal interests of victims are affected, the views or concerns of the victim should, when appropriate and consistent with criminal law and procedure, be brought to the attention of the court.
7. Measures may be taken when necessary to provide for the safety of victims and their families and to protect them from intimidation and retaliation.
8. Enhanced training should be made available to sensitize criminal justice personnel to the needs and concerns of victims and guidelines should be developed for this purpose.
9. Victims should be informed of the availability of health and social services and other relevant assistance that they might continue to receive the necessary medical, psychological and social assistance through existing programs and services.
10. Victims should report the crime and cooperate with law enforcement authorities.

Sedgwick County Sheriff's Office advises victims of the following:

1. The suspect in your case can be released from custody in a short amount of time.
2. In some cases a bond condition may be imposed on the suspect prohibiting contact with you, the victim, for 72 hours. If the suspect contacts you in any way, then you should notify law enforcement immediately.
3. You should register with the VINE network, so that you can be informed on when the suspect is released from custody.
4. Details of this case may be made public.

Kansas VINE Services

VINE is an automated service that lets you track the custody status of offenders in county jails over the phone and internet. You can also register to be notified by phone, text, email and/or TTY if the custody status of an offender changes.

To access offender custody information

- Call 1-866-574-8463
- Visit www.vinelink.com
- Download the VINElink app
- TTY users, call 1-866-847-1298

Registration

If the offender is in custody, you can register to receive VINE notifications.

If you register a phone number, you must create a four-digit personal identification number (PIN) that you will need when you receive notifications. Make sure your PIN is easy to remember. Write it down and keep it in a safe place.

Email registrations do not require a PIN.
